Sharpen Your Mediation Skills While Earning CEU Credits

The M. S. Powers Mediation Internship — led by Margaret S. Powers — is a comprehensive program designed to round out your education with a skills-based course curriculum and hands-on experience. The Program has two options:

Option A and Option B

Option A:

One on One – Receive 65 hours of individual supervision as you join Margaret Powers to co-mediate actual client cases, meet with Margaret prior to and after each session for discussion and feedback, experience drafting the MOU with Margaret’s expert guidance and review.

Option B:

Option B has three phases:

Phase 1: Classroom (35hrs) – observe, role play, and discuss real-world situations with up to 8 other participants in a small group setting.

Phase 2: Individual Supervision (30hrs) – join Margaret Powers and co-mediate actual client cases.

Phase 3: Consultation (10hrs) – tap into our professional expertise as you work with your own clients.
